Powers, Responsibilities, and accountabilities of the board:

- (a) The Board is responsible for the overall policy and direction of the CCMC.
- (b) The responsibility for funding the CCMC lies ultimately with the Board through promoting the CCMC, organizing fund raising activities, and establishing an individual Board member "Give or Get" policy
- (c) The Board is accountable: to the membership for governing the affairs of the CCMC; to the state of Texas for adhering to state corporate law; and to the federal government in matters relating to legislation affecting nonprofit organizations. The Board shall be guided by the expressed desires of the membership and their actions shall not be in conflict with the CCMC mission and purposes.
- (d) The Board is accountable for the organization's usefulness and effectiveness, for the present and the future. The Board must ensure that strategic and operational planning takes place, approve the product of planning, and ensure that implementation takes place. The Board must direct and be active participants in the planning process.
- (e) The Board is authorized to enact additional policies and procedures necessary for effective operation of the CCMC, provided they do not conflict with the mission and purposes of CCMC. Such policies and procedures will be documented in Board minutes or in a CCMC Operating Manual. Board policies documented in the CCMC Operating Manual will include:
 - (1) Policies affecting individual members including, but not limited to:
 - a. Membership fees, dues, and other assessments.
 - Availability of financial assistance to members requiring such consideration in meeting the financial obligations of CCMC membership.
 - c. Member safety, decorum, and discipline.
 - Expectations for performing members such as rehearsal attendance, preparation, and member responsibilities for performance attire
 - (2) Policies affecting CCMC operations including:
 - a. Financial Policies, including cash control procedures.
 - b. Personnel Policies for paid and volunteer staff.
 - c. Detailed job descriptions for all staff positions, key volunteer positions and committees.
- (f) The Board is authorized to employ and release all employed or contracted staff, in accordance with policies adopted by the Board, except that prior to engagement, persons recommended to be employed or contracted as Artistic Director must be approved by a majority vote of the CCMC members. The Board will assure that job descriptions and performance appraisal criteria are established for each position. The Board is also authorized to contract for services essential to CCMC operations and not readily available from the Board, staff, or volunteer resources.
- (g) The Board receives no compensation other than reimbursement of reasonable expenses.
